Late dispatches from Illustrious Fotentate Leonafd P. Steuart, which indicate that his return to Washington.

St. John's Lodge, Chapter No. 13, will have charge of the religious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. Sunday, July 23, at 3 p.m. The service will be presented. Mr. Steuart accompanied Imperial Potentate McCandless to his home in Honolulu after the San Francisco session of the Imperial Council, and of course he remained long enough to get a good look at the real Kanakas. He arrived safely in San Francisco and then set out to see something of the American western wonderland and incidentally to take in the Yellow Stone, where he spent the Fourth of July. Whether or not the railway, men's strike has tied him up is not known at the present writing. The efficers of the temple, however, have been busy in his absence. The potentate's return will be followed quickly by the organization of the tremendous effort that Washington will make to match the San Francisco hospitality, when the Imperial Council meets here June 5, 6 and 7 of next year. All reflige that a full year's work, and hard work at that is before the nobility of Almas and the city of Washington, for the reception next year, let no one mistake, must be a city-wide affair, with everybody co-operating for the entertainment of the city's hundreds of thousands of guests, as well as to maintain Washington's long established reputation as a convention city. All sects and creeds, races and colors united to make the San Francisco convention one of the greatest events in Shrine annals. All of Washington's delegation have not yet returned. Past Potentate Henry Lansburgh is still doing Alaska, at last accounts, and many more are prolonging their vation among the wonunts, and many more are proders of the wonderful west.

Almas Temple Patrol, which, together with the Almas Brass Band, escorted Potentate Steuart to San Francisco, where it participated in the street parades and other events, is preparing for an "experience" meeting on Thursday evening, when the potentate is expected to be present. Almas base ball team has accepted a challenge from Khedive Temple of Norfolk, Va., for a game to be played in this city in August.

Maintended Patrol, which, together gast, the genial president of the club, is keen for the Order of the Eastern Star and believes in having its members "always present" when there are good things, around.

Friendship Chapter, No. 17, will have charge of the services at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Allan F. Poore of Anacostia M. E. Church will conduct.

Returning Shriners are still laughing over the discovery of the wonderful buzz-syp tree by The Star correspondent who made the western trip, during his stay at Catalina. The story of the discovery will probably appear elsewhere in The Star today, but the fame of the buzz-gyp tree is known throughout the length and breadth of Shrinedom. Briefly, it is claimed, the tree is "an act of God that nullifies the Volstead act." Unfortunately, it is claimed, the sample of the tree and its wonderful flowers and leaves which was intended for the Department of Agriculture were "swiped" en route after a harrowing interview with the discoverer.

President Hubert G. McLean left July 1 on a trip through the middle west on a mission for the club, but was seized with acute appendicits while on the train. He was removed to Grace Hospital, Detroit, Mich., where an operation was immediately performed. While his condition is critical, the physicians in charge hold forth hope for his recovery.

The bulletin of Benjamin B. French Lodge states that "through Brother Coumbe," the lodge has come into possession of a Masonic apron certified to have been worn in Alexandria Lodge by George Washington. The lodge has appointed a committee consisting of Senior Warden McGuire. Marshal John White and Mr. Harlan to secure data that will make clear the history of the apron and to make provision for its preservation and display.

Twenty-eight applications for membership in the Sojourners' Club were accepted at the last meeting. Included among the applicants were Lieut. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, Maj. Gen. Haan and Brig. Gen. Walker. Addresses on the general subject of "Masonry" were made by Judge George Fleming Moore past sovereign grand coming Moore past sovereign grand commander of the Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction; Ell Swaveley, past master of La Fayette Lodge; John Thomas Taylor, vice chairman of the national legislative committee of the American Legion, and former Representative Jamieson of Iowa.

The Masonic Fraternity in Washing-HE first step toward the acquisition of a Masonic Temple designed to house all the bodies and to be a credit to the National Capital was taken yesterday afternoon, with pomp and ceremony, at the Dean tract, now, it appears, officially christened "Temple Heights," when the first payment of, it is said, $125,000 was made upon the site and the title was taken over by the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia.

Many masters are complaining that the brethren of their lodges have not made returns for tickets for the base ball game for the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, May 30. The Masters' Association, it is said, desires to ascertain at the carliest possible date the full amount realized for the home by this game and to get the money in hand and turn it over to the home trustees. It is thought in a majority of cases that the failure to make returns is due to oversight.

The trustees named by the Grand Lodge to take title to the property and form such organization as may be necessary to administer it are L. Whiting Estes, chairman; John Poole and Eugene E. Thompson, well known business men of Washington and prominent in the fraternity.

The labors of the general committee, of which Gratz E. Dunkum is chairman, have demanded constant attention the past six weeks, during which time the raising of funds has been going on, and the lodge chairmen and team captains have given unsparingly of their time. The support which has been given the entire project by the fraternity generally is project by the fraternity generally is declared a strong testimonial to the loyalty and enthusiasm of the craft in Washington.

Ruth Chapter will have an outing at the Almas Temple Auto Club's summer home, on West river, Md., Wednesday, and Martha Chapter will also bask in the delights of the Shriners' summer quarters Saturday.
